

Northwest Reiki Gathering
“Bringing Your Reiki Practice Home”
August 13 - 15, 2010

Hawayo Takata, who brought the teaching of Reiki from Japan, said “Reiki is for you first”. Do you easily give Reiki to others, but struggle with your own self-Reiki practice? Have you ever felt alone in your practice and yearned for a community to learn and explore with? Are you ready to step more deeply into this ancient healing form?

Once you have learned Reiki, you are a lifetime student of this powerful practice. This annual gathering of fellow practitioners – beginners and masters alike – creates a rich, supportive community, one in which you’ll find collaboration, watch your practice become more spacious and advance on your own personal healing path. With discussions, sharing and plenty of group and self-Reiki time, this weekend will renew, refresh and inspire you.

Susan and Paul Mitchell are the weekend’s facilitators. They are both students of Hawayo Takata, have practiced Reiki and inspired the local and global Reiki community for more than 30 years.

Accommodations are simple, rustic cabins with three vegetarian meals each day. The gathering begins Friday evening with dinner at 6:00 pm and ends with lunch on Sunday. There are natural mineral springs to soak in, a steam sauna and many beautiful hiking trails.

Cost for early registration by April 7 is $325 with payment by Visa or MasterCard, and discounted to $315 with cash/check payment. If you pay April 8 or later, the cost is $367 with a cash discount at $356. This information is summarized in the chart at the bottom of the page.

Please register early to assure your place at this year’s gathering. Early registration also helps us in our closed-camp negotiations with Breitenbush. If you have medical constraints, please submit your registration no later than July 1, and we will do our best to accommodate your needs. There are a few tents and campsites available at larger discounts. Contact the registrar (below) for availability. There is a possibility that some portions of the weekend will be videotaped, so you may be asked to sign a release form.

If you are interested in applying for a scholarship this year, please fill out the registration form, marking the appropriate line, and mail (with no payment at this time) to the address below. Completed scholarship applications are due by April 15, 2010.
